

THE PEDIATRICIANS OF HYDE PARK, LLC

Notice of Privacy Practices

Privacy Practices

This notice describes how protected medical and drug-related information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

General Information

Information regarding your health care, including payment for health care and treatment, is primarily protected by three federal laws:

(i) the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), 42 U.S.C. § 1320d et seq., 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 & 164; (ii) the additional privacy and security requirements enacted pursuant to Subtitle D of the Health Information Technology for Clinical Health Act (HITECH), including 45 C.F.R. Sections 164.308, 164.310, 164.312, and 164.316; and (iii) the Confidentiality Law, 42

U.S.C. § 290dd-2, 42 C.F.R. Part 2. Under these laws, Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC may not say to a person outside Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC that you are a patient, nor may Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC disclose any information identifying you or disclose any other protected information about you, except as permitted by federal or Ohio law. Patients' private PHI will not be used or disclosed to anyone other than the patient except in certain circumstances.

How Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC May Use and Disclose Medical Information about You

The following list describes the ways Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC may use and disclose your medical information without your written authorization. The examples provided serve only as guidance and do not include every possible use or disclosure.

For Treatment: We may use and disclose your Protected Health Information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related service. For example, we may disclose your PHI to other doctors who need the information to provide you with care.

For Payment: We may use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment or procedure you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the services.

For Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose medical information about you for our operations. For example, we may use your PHI to assess our treatment and services. These uses and disclosures are necessary to operate Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC in an efficient manner and to ensure that all individuals receive quality care.

Treatment Reminders: We may use and disclose medical information to remind you of a scheduled treatment appointment or procedure.

THE PEDIATRICIANS OF HYDE PARK, LLC

Business Associates: We may disclose your PHI to people who perform functions, activities or services to us or on our behalf that require the use or disclosure of PHI. To protect your health information, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Required by Law: We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal or Ohio state laws. Examples: if by Subpoena or other court order.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose medical information about you to medical or law enforcement personnel when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.

Sale of Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC: We may use and disclose medical information about you to another health care entity in the sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation of Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC, unless your medical information includes information about substance use disorder treatment services provided to you. Such information will only be transferred to the new entity pursuant to your written authorization as further described below.

Electronic Disclosure: We may disclose your medical information orally, in paper format or using any electronic means.

Health Information Exchange: Our Practice uses one or more Health Information Exchange and discloses your IHI through a secure electronic network. We and other healthcare providers may allow access to your IHI through the Health Information Exchange for treatment, payment and other healthcare operations. This is a voluntary agreement, you may opt-out any time by notifying the practice manager in writing.

- 1. Reproductive Health Care Privacy. In compliance with recent amendments to the HIPAA Privacy Rule Final Rule, our practice will not use or disclose an individual's reproductive Protected Health Information (PHI) for the purpose of conducting a criminal, civil, or administrative investigation into or imposing criminal, civil, or administrative liability on any person for the mere act of seeking, obtaining, providing, or facilitating reproductive health care that is lawful under the circumstances in which it is provided. Examples of reproductive healthcare include, but are not limited to, contraception, counseling, and pregnancy testing.
Example: If you travel to a state where abortion is legal to seek care, we will not participate in or cooperate with any legal action against you based on that decision.
- Require Signed Attestation: When we receive a request for information potentially related to reproductive health care, we must obtain a signed attestation from the requester that the use or disclosure is not for a prohibited purpose when the request relates to health oversight activities, judicial and administrative proceedings, law enforcement purposes, and disclosures to coroners and medical examiners. For example, if we receive a lawful subpoena for medical records that include information related to reproductive health care, we must obtain a signed attestation from the requester that states the request is not for a prohibited purpose.

We will not disclose PHI for prohibited purposes unless we have "actual knowledge" or factual information showing a substantial factual basis that the request does not involve lawful reproductive healthcare.

Special Situations

Organ and Tissue Donation: If you are an organ donor, we may disclose your PHI to organizations that handle procurement of organ, eye, or tissue transplantations

Military and Veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release medical information about you as required by military command authorities.

Workers' Compensation: We may release medical information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.

Qualified Personnel: We may disclose medical information for research or for management audit, financial audit, or program evaluation, but Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC personnel may not directly or indirectly identify you in any report of the research, audit, or evaluation, or otherwise disclose your identity in any manner.

Public Health Risks: We may disclose medical information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following:

- To prevent or control disease, injury, or disability.
- To report births and deaths.
- To report child abuse or neglect.
- To report reactions to medications or problems with products.
- To notify people of recalls of products they may be using.
- To notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading disease or condition.
- To notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.
- PHI may be shared when required for public health purposes for public health surveillance, investigation and interventions

All such disclosures will be made in accordance with the requirements of federal and Ohio state laws and regulations.

Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Health oversight agencies include public and private agencies authorized by law to oversee health care providers and the health care industry in general.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose your PHI, so long as applicable legal requirements are met, for law enforcement purposes, such as providing information to the police about the victim of a crime.

Coroners, Medical Examiners, and Funeral Directors: We may release medical information to a coroner or medical examiner when authorized by law (e.g., identify a deceased person or determine cause of death) or to funeral directors.

THE PEDIATRICIANS OF HYDE PARK, LLC

Inmates: If you are an inmate of a correctional facility or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release health and treatment information about you to the correctional facility or law enforcement official. Such a release would be necessary for: (1) the facility to provide you with proper care; (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; and (3) to ensure the safety and security of the correctional facility.

Other Uses and Disclosures

Pediatricians of Hyde Park LLC will not use or disclose your medical information for any other purposes (including, without limitation, marketing), unless you give Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC, your written authorization to do so. If you give Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC such written authorization for a purpose not described in this Notice, then you may, in most cases, revoke such authorization in writing at any time. Your revocation will be effective for all your medical information Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC maintains, unless our practice has already acted in reliance on your prior authorization.

Substance Use Disorder Treatment: Your medical information related to such services is protected by federal law and regulation (see 42 CFR Part 2) and will only be used or disclosed by Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC pursuant to: (1) your written authorization. (2) a court order or other legal requirement; (3) medical needs in an emergency to qualified medical personnel; or (4) research, audit, or program evaluation purposes to qualified personnel. This includes use or disclosure of such information in the event of a sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation of Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC. If you do not provide written authorization in such an event, your information will not be transferred.

Please note that federal law or Ohio regulations protecting alcohol or drug treatment records do not protect any information about a crime committed by a patient of Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC or a member of our practice workforce, or any information about suspected child abuse or neglect that is otherwise reportable under Ohio law to appropriate state or local authorities. A violation of the federal law and regulations that protect the confidentiality of substance use disorder treatment patient records is a crime. Suspected violations may be reported to appropriate authorities in accordance with 42 CFR Part 2.

Your Health Information Rights

Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and obtain a paper or electronic copy of medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care, except for information compiled for use in a civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding or in other limited circumstances.

To inspect and copy your medical information, you must submit your request in writing to the Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC Compliance Officer. If you request a copy of the information, our practice may charge a fee as established by its licensing authority, if applicable, for the costs of copying, mailing, or summarizing your medical records.

Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC may deny your request to inspect and copy your medical information in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. A third-party licensed health care professional chosen by Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC will review your request and denial. This professional will not be the same person who denied your request. Our practice will comply with the outcome of the review.

THE PEDIATRICIANS OF HYDE PARK, LLC

Right to Amend: If you feel that medical information maintained about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask your provider to correct or amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC.

To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to the Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC Compliance Officer. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request. Our provider may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request an “accounting of disclosures.” This is a list of the disclosures made of your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations.

To request this list, you must submit your request in writing to the Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC Compliance Officer. Your request must state a time period, which may not be longer than six (6) years. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper or electronically). The first list you request within a 12-month period will be provided to you by our practice for free. For additional lists within the 12-month period, you may be charged for the cost of providing the list. Our practice will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC, uses or discloses about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information our practice uses or discloses about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care. Our practice is not required to agree to such a request. Should our practice agree to your request, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information with your health insurer for the purpose of payment or our operations. We will honor such a request unless the law requires us to share that information.

To request restrictions, you must make your request by writing to the Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC Compliance Officer. In your request you may indicate: (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our practice’s use and/or disclosure; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply. For example, you may not want disclosures to be made to your spouse.

Right to Request Confidential Communications: You have the right to request that Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. To request that our practice communicate in a certain manner, you must make your request in writing to the Pediatricians of Hyde Park, LLC Compliance Officer. You do not have to state a reason for your request. Our practice will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

Changes to This Notice

Pediatricians of Hyde Park LLC reserve the right to change its privacy and security practices and to make the new provisions effective for all Protected Health Information that our practice holds or maintains. Should our privacy practices change, we will post the amended Notice of Privacy Practices in our office and on our website.
